

Erica Heath has worked in the area of human subject protection since December, 1970, first as the IRB administrator at the University of California San Francisco (1970-1984), and currently (1984-present) as President of Independent Review Consulting, Inc. (IRC).

At UCSF, Ms. Heath was responsible for operation of the IRB, the Animal Care & Use Committee (IACUC), and the Biosafety, Radiation Safety, and Chemical Safety committees. Ms.

Heath is President of the corporation and does IRB consulting with many traditional IRBs.

Ms. Heath interacts extensively with the pharmaceutical and medical device industries and speaks to a variety of professional organizations about IRBs, informed consent, drug and device research, and the ethics of human subjects research.

She received her B.A. from San Jose State University and her MBA in Health Care Administration from Golden Gate University in San Francisco. Her internship was served in the corporate development department of a very small community hospital. She has served on several editorial boards and is on the AAHRPP council.

Ms. Heath has extensive knowledge of IRBs and how they function in many different and varied settings.